The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use pupil information under:

<https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>
- The Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations;
- The School Standards and Framework Act 1998;
- The School Admissions Regulations 2012;
- Children and Families Act 2014;
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014;
- Data Protection Act (1998) (until 25 May 2018);
- General Data Protection Regulation (from 25 May 2018);
 - Article 6(1)(a) – consent;
 - Article 6(1)(c) – legal obligation;

 - Article 9(2)(a) – explicit consent;
 - Article 9(2)(g) – substantial public interest.

The DfE process census data under the various Education Acts – further information can be found on their website:

Our disclosure of personal data is lawful for the following reasons:

- OWN Trust is under a legal obligation to disclose the information or disclosing the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to look after our pupils and protect them from harm;
- It is necessary for us to disclose information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling. This is a function which is in the public interest.
- We have a legitimate interest in disclosing information because it is necessary in order to provide our pupils with education and pastoral care and connected purposes as outlined above.
- We will not usually need consent to disclose your information. However, if at any time it appears to us that we would need consent then this will be sought before a disclosure is made.

Collecting Pupil Information

Whilst the majority of pupil information provided to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform parents and pupils whether they are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if they have a choice in this. We may also receive information from previous schools, the local authority and the Department of Education (DfE).

Storing pupil data

Personal data will be kept secure whilst it is being stored, used and when it is being shared with others. We hold pupil data until the pupil reaches the age of 25 or until they leave the school and their records are transferred. After this time the paper records are securely shredded and the electronic files are deleted. CCTV footage is overwritten on a rolling approximately 7 week schedule unless exported for evidential purposes in line with our ICO registered purposes (detection and prevention of crime).

We do not normally transfer information to a different country which is outside the UK. This would only happen if a parent lives abroad or if the pupil moves to a new school abroad. If this happens we will be very careful to make sure that it is safe to transfer the information. We will look at whether that other country has good data protection laws for example. If we cannot be sure that it is safe then we will talk to the pupil and parent about it and make sure that you are happy for us to send the information. As this is not something we normally do, and we don't know which country we might need to send information to, we cannot provide more information about it now but if we want to transfer data to a different country then we will tell parents and pupils whether or not we think it is safe and why we have decided that.

Who we share pupil information with

We treat all information we hold about you (Pupils, Parents and other emergency contacts) as private and confidential to our organisation. We will not reveal any personal details concerning you to anyone not connected with OWN Trust or listed below unless:

The information disclosed to these people / services will include sensitive personal information about the pupil. Usually this means information about health and any special educational needs or disabilities. We do this because these people need the information so that they can support the pupil.

We will also provide information about pupils to parents or main carers. Where appropriate, we will listen to pupil views first. We will also take family circumstances into account, where a Court has decided what information a parent/carers is allowed to have.

When you give us information about another person, you need to ensure you have permission from them to provide us with their information.

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the DfE under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013. We also share information with OWN Trust to monitor and support pupil progress.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies. We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to Department for Education \(ioe.ac.uk\).

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis;

- producing statistics;
- providing information, advice or guidance.

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data.

Decisions on whether

DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data;
- the purpose for which it is required;
- the level and sensitivity of data requested;
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data.

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:
